Sicily, the "breadbasket of Italy," is a feast for the senses—where golden grains, rich cheeses, fragrant olive oils, vibrant wines, and irresistible desserts tell the story of centuries of culinary and cultural tradition. On this leisurely and immersive journey, enjoy 4 nights in the charming seaside town of Castellammare del Golfo and 5 nights in the enchanting jewel of Taormina, where the island's beauty unfolds at a relaxed pace.

Explore historic treasures like Palermo's Norman Palace and Taormina's ancient Greek Amphitheater, savor authentic local flavors and wines, and be captivated by the stunning vistas of Erice, Siracusa, and the majestic Mt. Etna. You'll also enjoy unique experiences with locals that reveal the heart of Sicilian life, all while traveling in a small group accompanied by Annette Morejon, local Italy expert and proud owner of Traveler's Caffè. Bring your friends and let's explore this magical island together!
